

Jeanie's Market Bakery Privacy Policy

Effective: February 21, 2018

Thanks for visiting Jeanie's Market Bakery (Jeanie's). Your privacy is important to us. The following outlines our policies as it relates to the collection and handling of your personal information by Jeanie's. References to "Jeanie's" shall include the employees, agents, successors, assigns and website of Jeanie's Market Bakery

Information Collected

Jeanie's does not collect any personalized information from you other than what you voluntarily provide to us in the course of requesting a benefit, promotion or service from us or the provision of said benefit, promotion or service by us to you.

Who Collects It

Jeanie's may collect information from you through any of its employees, its website or other clearly identified third parties acting for and on behalf of Jeanie's.

Information related to your IP address may also be collected automatically by software used by the Jeanie's website but shall not be used by Jeanie's to identify anyone visiting the website without your express consent unless otherwise compelled to do so by law, in accordance with this Privacy Policy or as permitted pursuant to the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, 2000, c.5 ("Pipeda").

For What Reason

Information collected from you by Jeanie's may be used to communicate with you pursuant to the provision of a service(s) or product(s) or to respond to communication from you or otherwise as required by law or this Privacy Policy. It may also be used by Jeanie's or shared with third parties in order to facilitate the provision of requested services (e.g. third-party delivery services, where such services are offered)

Other than stated herein, information may be published on the website of Jeanie's and in other related marketing materials in relation to the winner of any contest or promotion and in accordance with the express rules of said contest or promotion.

Your information may also be used to process credit card transactions, whether through the website or in-store.

Who Uses It

Information collected by Jeanie's shall be for the exclusive and sole use of Jeanie's.

Other than as provided herein Jeanie's shall not share your information with any third parties without your express consent or otherwise as required by law.

Recording of information

No information collected by Jeanie's shall be permanently recorded save and except, in certain circumstances and at our discretion, your name, telephone number and email address.

Where said information is recorded it shall remain private and shall be used solely in accordance with this Privacy Policy and shall not be made public other than as provided for herein.

Your Consent

By placing an order through our website, contacting us and/or entering our store to place an order or provide us with information, you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your information by Jeanie's in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy.
